The Game

Will It Be The Final One?

Andover will be a slight favorite to win what may be their final traditional Thanksgiving Day contest with North Andover Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Alvah G. Hayes field in North Andover.

Both teams enter the contest with only one win to their credit, the Golden Warriors winning over Methuen and the Scarlet Knights topping Burlington 8-7 for their only victory of the season.

Andover will be seeking the mythical Little Three championship, indicative of supremacy over Methuen and North Andover. Methuen defeated North Andover in a close game earlier this season.

Head Coach Richard Collins feels the contest should be a close one and sees both teams evenly matched.

His Golden Warriors are good physically for the game, the coach reports, adding that every game requires an emotional output and he is hopeful his club can be "up" for the big game.

It could be the end of the traditional Turkey Day game - a series which began in 1911.

North Andover has made application for acceptance in the Cape Ann league, a matter which will be decided sometime in December.

The Scarlet Knights have had losing seasons for the past few years, and being the smallest school in the Merrimack Valley Conference, officials feel a transfer to a league composed of such schools as Masconomet, North Reading and others, would be beneficial and more in keeping with the male enrollment of the school.

If this should happen, then possibly the rivalry would have to be terminated.

North Andover has not beaten Andover since 1957, and holds few wins over Andover in the series.

Coach Collins stated Tuesday that he hoped that it would not be the end of the rivalry.

"It has been a good rivalry over the years and the contests have been close. We have always enjoyed good relationship with North Andover and certainly hope it will continue," he said.

There have been rumors of a possible change in the Thanksgiving contest, matching Lawrence and Andover on that day. Lawrence, has had its problems with Lowell in recent years, the same as North Andover has had with Andover.

Asked about this possibility, Collins replied that he would have no objection to meeting Lawrence or Central Catholic, also of Lawrence.

They both would be fine opponents, and I wouldn't object to meeting either, but I think tradition should take precedence and the North Andover game retained.

In any case, it will be the big game for both teams tomorrow, one which makes or breaks the season and accompanying the clash are the traditional cliches about "anything can happen" "past records mean nothing," and "breaks may decide it."

Preliminary Budget Is Due On Tuesday

Its municipal budget time again, and as is predictable, the document will be an item to conjure with, what with rising costs all around.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin could not make any estimates as of Tuesday, stating that he had reviewed about 80 per cent of the departmental requests up to this time.

The manager will have final figures ready for the selectmen by Tuesday, Dec. 1. The town manager charter dictates that a preliminary budget figure must be provided the selectmen and finance committee on that date.

Austin stated that the budget presented Tuesday will reflect what the town must consider for the solving of major problems.

Major areas to be considered will concern themselves with the police department and the public works department. Recommendations for increased personnel is expected to be made in both departments.

In the public works department, major consideration will be given to the water department, in view of the impending construction of a water treatment plant.

There are, of course automatic budget reflections in the bonded indebtedness account, through which the town has built schools and utilities over the years and annually pays off notes and the interest thereon.

The education budget will be a major factor.

Public education cost over $6,000,000 this year, and is expected to climb upward again in 1971. Negotiations are currently underway regarding salaries for the professional staff, thus the preliminary figure to be given the selectmen Tuesday, may be off considerably.

Already increased is the request for the town's share of operation of the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical high school.

Hurting the overall financial picture, the manager noted was a decrease in 1971 of at least $50,000 in state aid. The manager along with other municipal officials throughout the state are appealing to the governor and legislature to restore funds to aid the cities and towns.

As for salary increases for municipal employees, the manager said there was no need to ask for a moratorium such as Lawrence

FATAL SCENE. Seven Andover teenagers were injured Friday night when this car in which they were riding crashed into a utility pole at Shawsheen Road and Stevens street, fatally injuring Miss Linda J. Berry. Joan McAree, 17, 77 Dascomb Road, seriously injured was on the danger list at Lawrence General hospital Tuesday.

One Dead, Six Injured In Crash

A thronged St. Augustine's church paid final tribute Monday, to Miss Linda J. Berry, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Berry, 15 Glen Meadow Road, who was fatally injured Friday night when the car in which she was a passenger crashed into a utility pole at Shawsheen road and Stevens street.

Miss Berry was one of seven occupants injured in the crash.

Joan McAree, 17, 77 Dascomb Road, was listed in critical condition and on the danger list at Lawrence General hospital Tuesday, as a result of injuries sustained in the accident.

The accident happened a short distance from Andover High school, where the young people had attended a dance and were returning home after a party at the home of friends. The car, or bus, rammed head on into the pole about 11:30 p.m. on a rain-slicked roadway.

Others injured in the accident were:

Robin Brown, 186 Elm St., injuries to right hip and mouth. Edward Flannery, 8 Beacon St., right shoulder injuries.

Christopher Bull, 16, 209 Lowell St., back injuries.

Kathy Harding, 18, 129 Haverhill St., left ankle and shoulder injuries.

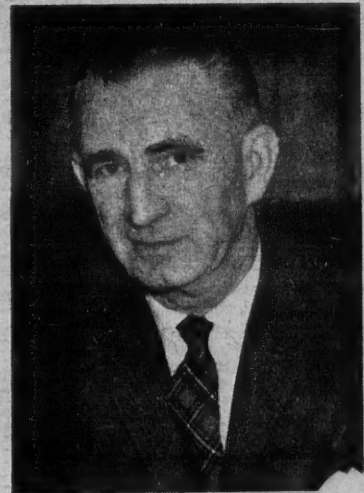

Sharon Yardley, 17, 32 Dufton Road, left hand and wrist injuries. All were taken to Lawrence General and Bon Secours hospitals in the Andover fire department ambulance and Andover police cruisers.

Miss Berry is survived by her parents, a brother, Brian K., student at West Junior high school paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Berry of Brighton

New England Gym Clinic To Be Held

The 1970 New England Gymnastic Clinic will be held at Lowell Technological Institute, Lowell, on Nov. 27 and 28 at the Thomas F. Costello gymnasium.

The 1969 clinic has been hailed as the finest gymnastics clinic ever held in this country. Present plans include the same content and scope except that the registration will be limited to 600 men and 600 women, ages 12 and over. Clinic director is Richard Aronson, coach at L.T.I. and chairman of the New England Gymnastic Clinic Executive Committee. The clinic will feature outstanding men and women master teachers, some of whom are: Rusty Mitchell, 1964 olympian; Dave Thor, 1968 olympian; Jim Culhane, international competitor; Glenn Wilson and Mike Jacobsen, NCAA champions; Bob Emery, international competitor; and Frank Cumisky, dean of American gymnastic judges. The women will have Delene Darst, international judge at the world student games; Ernestine R. Carter, 1956-60 Canadian olympian; Marilyn Savage, present coach of the Canadian women's team; Dr. Joseph Massimo, member of the national coaching staff, and Kathy Corrigan Ekas, member of the 1964 olympic team.

The clinic will be highlighted by an international match on Friday evening with the New England Elite Women's team against a specially selected team from Canada. The same program will be repeated on Saturday with the men. Coach of the American men's team is Rusty Mitchell, 1964 olympian, and Erik Kjeldsen, varsity coach from the University of Massachusetts, has been selected as manager. The women's team will be coached by Delene Darst. Mimi Murray, women's coach at Springfield College will serve as manager.

Poster Contest Underway

The Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Society has announced a contest for elementary and high school students, in connection with its December Concert.

Students can make or design original posters for the concert which is scheduled for Dec. 20 at 3:30 p.m. at the West Junior High school.

The theme is to be "Young Persons Christmas Celebration." The name of the entrant should be written on the front of the poster, with full name and address printed on the back.

Regulation sized poster paper, 18" by 30" inches is to be used.

Posters may be returned to art supervisors or to Mrs. Anthony J. Ippolito, 144 Lawrence Road, Salem, N.H., or Mrs. Linda Perreault, 15 Smith Ave., Methuen.

Testimonial For Russell

A testimonial will be held Thursday, Dec. 10, at the Andover Country club, honoring Roy Russell, veteran and popular member of the Andover police department, who has retired after 20 years service with the police department.

In addition to serving as a patrolman, Russell has been a member of several municipal boards, and served as chairman of the school committee during his years on that board.

Reservations for the event are available at the police station, Simone's Pharmacy and the Kenneth P. Thompson Co.

Persons wishing to pay tribute to the retiring officer, may make contributions in care of the Bay State Merchants National bank.

Members of the committee include Sgt. Hector Pattullo, Edward I. Erickson, Frank Kennedy, Harold Coleman, Chief David L. Nicoll, John Boyle and Duncan Cairnie.

Tax Refunds Are Listed

The names of two Andover-people appear on the list of the Internal Revenue Service who have refund checks unclaimed.

For those on the list, they may go to the nearest Internal Revenue office and with proper identification, make arrangements to receive their checks.

Those from Andover are Stanley and Francis Grigas and Geoffrey W. Sexton.

Listed from North Andover are Douglas L. Haas, Ralph and Ruth Taylor and Joseph L. Viveiros.

The young bride quit buying TV dinners. It took too long to heat them on the set.

The First United Methodist Church of North Andover will hold their Annual All-Church Fair in two segments this year. The first will be on Dec. 5 in the new educational building at 57 Peters
St. in North Andover.

This will include the sale of bakery, knit goods, Christmas decorations, plants, white elephants, outgrown children's clothing, jewelry, gifts, a post office, and a Promise Tree. The second part will be a ham and bean supper to be held at the Masonic Temple on Johnson Street on Dec. 12 from 5 - 7 p.m.

Anyone interested in working on craft projects is urged to come to the Education Building any morning from now to the fair and there will be plenty of things to keep them busy. Mrs. Lloyd Bruce and Mrs. Phillip Smith are in charge of this work.

The Fidelis Circle members are busy baking and the Sunnyside Circle is equally busy making candy. The Explorer Scouts are looking for white elephants and

Mrs. Stewart Wilson and Mrs.
John Pearson are soliciting good outgrown children's clothing. Mrs.
Philip Lee and Miss Evelyn Clark are looking for items from everywhere for their Sunday School Post Office table and Mrs. Janet La-Belle is looking for promises of work or whatever you do well that may be sold on her promise tree.

A luncheon will be served on the 5th by Mrs. Clarence Scheipers,
Mrs. Richard Swift and Mrs. Gene Northam. There will be sandwiches as well as hot food available.

On the 12th a ham and bean supper will be served. Tickets are in charge of Mrs. James Dewhurst and Mrs. Richard
Maranto, Mrs. Carl Schofield,
Mrs. Andrew Coffin and Mrs.
Charles McKinnon assisting. Mrs.
Stewart Wilson will be in charge of the dining room.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

Thursday, Dec. 3, The Haven Associates will have a Bakery Sale beginning at 10 o'clock and continuing until everything is sold.
All the good bakers of Andover are invited to contribute, and all the hungry people of Andover are invited to buy. The proceeds of the sale will be used for the Christmas party.

Friday, Dec. 4 there will be a special Coffee Hour at The Haven at 11. Ann Aldrich of The Cosmetic Studio will talk to the ladies on skin care.

The Christmas Party to be paid for from the proceeds of the bakery sale will be held Monday, Dec. 21. More details will be available later, but all Andover's senior citizens are urged to mark the day on their calendar.

DOES HE KNOW ABOUT GOD-POWER?

Your teen-ager may already know about atomic-power, hydropower, manpower. He is aware that many other things are referred to as power. But is he aware of the greatest power in the universe?

Learning about God's power will give your child confidence to tackle the obstacles we all face in life.

Through a study of the Scriptures, the Christian Science Sunday School encourages all children to see the power of God for themselves. You are invited to have your children visit or enroll in our classes Sunday mornings.

Atomic Art On Display

Atomic artist Alyce Simon makes her Boston debut at the Museum of Science with a display of her work opening to the public November 21.

"Atomic Art," an assemblage of eight major pieces brings to New England audiences a first glimpse of dazzling effects achieved through the twentieth century phenomena of plastics, acrylic paints, and most innovative of all, atomic bombardment.

Winner of eight Carnegie awards, her work has been shown in one-man exhibits at the Smithsonian Institution and the Ontario Science Center, and in group shows at New York's Museum of Modern Art and Brooklyn Museum. Mrs. Simon, a New Yorker, has achieved national prominence with her application to art of the marvels of technology.

Visitors to the exhibition in Washburn Gallery at the Science Museum will be able not only to view the unique artworks, but also, in three instances, to control them. A complex lighting system will be operable by means of a rheostat (known to householders as a "dimmer") which lowers or elevates the illumination of "Pink Eclipse" to produce a variety of moods. Pushbuttons can be used to bring to life the dramatic "Triangle" and the evocative "Pink Moon, Grey Mushroom."

"Atomic Art" is the result of controlled bombardment of Plexiglas acrylic plastic sheets, the application of acrylic paints after irradiation, the "sandwiching" of several layers of the treated plastic to form multi-dimensional effects, and the whole enclosed in an illuminated case.

Produced by this intricate series of art-science steps the pieces can as well be classified as sculpture as they can be designated as paintings. Abstract and semi-abstract in style, they all are suffused with a glow of other-worldly light that comes of the illumination which penetrates the several layers. Forms both hard-edge and diffused, and colors both vivid and subtle, by turns advance and recede as the light level is altered.

A far cry from the traditional artist's studio is the workshop in which Mrs. Simon turns out her unusual art forms. Geiger counter in pocket, she introduces the plastic sheets into a Van de Graaff particle accelerator, in a predetermined sequence. Here they are bombarded by heavy streams of electrons at high speed which break down the molecular structure of the plastic, creating tree-shaped and other delicate internal fractures.

The next step involves paint applied to complement, emphasize, and sometimes delineate the branches of fractures, and finally, the addition of electrical components and suitable box frames.

After studying at Syracuse University, the Pratt Institute, the Brooklyn Museum Art School, and the Art Students League, Mrs. Simon pursued her art with orthodox materials and techniques. She developed her new direction in cooperation with Dr. Kennard H. Morganstern, an atomic physicist of Westbury, Long Island.

Soccer League Concludes

The Andover YMCA Soccer league program for boys in grades 4-6 was concluded last Monday. The league had been in operation since the last week in Sept. under Director Bill Stevens assisted by Scott McKusick, Harlen Green, Craig Niziak, Scott Thomas, and George Pappas. 46 boys were enrolled in the program which included instruction in basic soccer fundamentals plus league competition.

Individual statuettes were awarded to the following members of the Orioles; the league titlists. Bob Conroy, John Donovan, Greg Stupack, Dave Farrell, Ken Gaynor, Warren Patterson, Frank Pelletier, Roger Romei, John Steen, Mark Vens, Paul Bracken, and manager Scott Thomas.

'Messiah' Presentation December 6

For the forty-first year our local Male Choir and Choral Society are presenting the immortal "Messiah" by George Frederick Handel born in 1685, in Germany but later at the time of this work's performance, a resident of England.

The performance is to be presented in Cochran Chapel, Phillips Academy on Dec. 6, at 8 p.m. Phillips Academy has been most gracious to offer annually its beautiful Cochran Chapel together with the truly great organ to our local singing groups, for which they are grateful.

For the performance on Dec. 6 the soloists are as follows. The soprano, Elizabeth Phinney of Winchester; Elizabeth Krueger, alto, who resides in North Tewksbury, formerly from Minnesota; Richard Wall, tenor, from Exeter, N.H., who many heard a month ago in the fine performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" by these same singing groups.

This year a member of the San Francisco Opera Company with wide experience in oratorio and opera is the baritone, George Lowe, a former Methuen resident. Mr. Lowe will be on a concert tour in the east and has consented to be a part in the performance in Andover on the sixth. His mother still resides in Methuen.

Maxine Calt will be at the piano and Herbert Irvine at the organ. The performance is free. A collection will be taken to help cover expenses.

Everett Collins will direct for his forty-first performance.

Workshops Planned At Church

Two workshops in interpersonal relationships will be sponsored by the Religious Education Department of the Unitarian-Universalist Church, Lowell St., starting on Sunday, Nov. 29 and continuing the following week, Dec. 6.

Leading the workshops will be the Rev. Jerome Holland, guidance counsellor and assistant professor of Religion at Merrimack College, and Richard J. Lange, also a counsellor at Merrimack and an instructor in that institution's English department.

The first workshop is for junior and senior high schoolers while the second one is designed primarily for their parents. Students from the seventh grade up will meet at 9:30 a.m. on Nov. 29 while parents will begin their workshop the following week at 9 a.m.

Fr. Holland is moderator of the freshman class at Merrimack and has conducted group dynamics classes at the college. He heads the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in West Andover.

Before coming to Merrimack he had, for 13 years, been a teacher and director of guidance at Archbishop Carroll High School in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Lange, who makes his home at 6 Moreland Avenue, came to Merrimack from Boston College, where he worked under the director of guidance and was responsible for all guidance and counseling in the School of Business Administration. He has conducted numerous group dynamics courses and sensitivity groups on both the college and community levels.

The course to be given at the Unitarian-Universalist Church is designed to be a pleasant experience, as well as an educational one.

Campaign To Purchase Equipment

The membership committee of the South School held a meeting recently to plan a "campaign" to hopefully make all parents members of the PTO in order to buy the following playground equipment: bar slide, balancing beam, space ladders, shenny pole, tower climber.

The committee consists of Mrs. Philip Vigeant, chairman; Mrs. James MacMillan, Mrs. E. Stanley Brown, Mrs. Herbert MacMillan, Mrs. John Schwing, Mrs. Joseph Sullivan, Mrs. Bruce Taylor.

The man who listens to what the other fellow has to say always gets a broader point of view.

Intramural Football Ends

The intramural touch football program at the South Elementary School in Andover has completed its 6th and final week.

David J. Silva, the physical education instructor at the South School has announced the final standings.

Music To Our Ears

By Edward P. Grigoli

With so many new concepts in education becoming more evident in today's society the importance of self-discipline must be stressed to students in order to achieve success in any field.

The necessity of constant practice and study is essential to develop any skill whether it be reading, writing, arithmetic or "music." It is my belief that music is a language, with its own vocabulary, grammar and structure. Music literature is expressed in many personal styles. Initially it is as foreign a language to most as Spanish, French and Chinese. When listening to a live concert or a good recording one cannot expect to receive any message from them, without having first acquainted himself with the basic rudiments of the "Language."

Listening with understanding in music can only be achieved with a background knowledge of the following areas: the knowledge of basic music vocabulary and grammar, understanding the basic styles of music, a sensitive awareness of instrumental and vocal technique, a casual background on the lives of great composers and the interpretation of a composer's musical statement.

One must not be deceived when considering educational factors, by accepting a mere passive listening and appreciation of music as being enough. No art can thrive on secondhand recognition. Only active participation in music can engender a healthy, musical person.

Obituaries...WILLIAM J. COLGAN

William J. Colgan, 70, 204 North Main St., an overseer in textile mills for many years, died unexpectedly Sunday, Nov. 22. He was stricken in his yard and was taken by ambulance to Lawrence General Hospital where he was dead on arrival.

Dr. John T. Batal, medical examiner, said he died from arterio-sclerotic heart disease.

Born in Lawrence, Oct. 8, 1900, he lived in Andover 45 years. He was an overseer in American Woolen Co. plants in Fulton, N.Y., and Plymouth.

He retired in 1962 from the Methuen International Mills where he was an overseer in the mending department.

Mr. Colgan attended St. Augustine's Church and was a member of St. Patrick's Half Century Club in Lawrence. His late wife was the former Sarah V. Hitchen.

Surviving are a brother, Thomas E. Colgan and a sister, Miss Mary Agnes Colgan, both of Andover.

The funeral will be held today with a 9 a.m. high Mass in St. Augustine's Church. Burial will be in Elmwood Cemetery, Methuen.

MISS ANNIE B. DILLINGHAM

Miss Annie Blanche Dillingham, 6 Kariton Circle, died Wednesday, Nov. 18 at the Reading Nursing Home, Reading, after a long illness.

Born in Dorchester, she resided for many years in Cambridge and Medford and during the past year in Andover.

She resided with her sister, Mrs. Gordon Boyd of Andover. Other survivors are a brother, Philip H. Dillingham of Dearborn, Mich., and eight nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Lundgren Funeral Home, 18 Elm St. Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery.

ACCIDENT

and her maternal grandfather, Joseph Boudreau, of Somerville.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Berry told the TOWNSMAN that he and his wife were very appreciative of the condolences expressed by the young people of the community following the accident.

Mr. Berry said that the youngsters, classmates and friends of their daughter, had come to their home following the accident, spent considerable time, prepared meals and cared for the house.

In addition they attended the wake in hundreds and also the funeral Mass on Monday.

Despite the grief, Mr. Berry wanted all to know how appreciative the family was, and particularly of the exemplary young people who assisted them and comforted them at a time of need.

FAMILY SHOE DEPARTMENT

HONORED. Mrs. George Sheerer, seated, president of the Andover League of Women Voters, serves Mrs. Douglas Dunbar, Sr., a former president, at a tea honoring all past presidents of the league.

Hold Trail Ride In Forest

The Boots and Saddle 4H Club held a trail ride Sunday, Nov. 22, in the Harold Parker State Forest. Twenty members participated in the three hour ride through the forest. There was a brief stop at the Forest Riding Academy, in North Andover, for hot chocolate and doughnuts before they headed home. It was a beautiful day for the ride and, aside from the fact that they nearly lost half their members near the end of the trail, it was a great ride, much enjoyed by everyone.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2, at seven o'clock at the Andover Recreation Park Lodge. Visitors and new members are always welcome.

Former Presidents Honored

A President's Tea was held recently by the Andover League of Women Voters.

The directors and officers conducted the affair to provide an opportunity to have the new league board meet with the past league leadership.

Those invited included the following past presidents: Mrs. Harold Rafton, Mrs. Peter McKee, Mrs. Hart Leavitt, Mrs. Henry Tyer, Mrs. Douglas Dunbar, Sr., Mrs. Douglas Dunbar, Jr., Mrs. Alan Blackmer, Mrs. Frederick Stott, Mrs. Graham Baldwin, Mrs. John Barss, Mrs. Edward Buchanan, Mrs. Dudley Pitts, Mrs. Margaret Little, Mrs. John B. Edmonds, Mrs. R. Milton Cole, Mrs. David Darling, Mrs. Jerome Andrews, Jr., Mrs. Paul Crane, Mrs. Gerald Cornwell and Mrs. George Sherrerd.

One-Man Show At Gallery

The Addison Gallery of American Art in Andover is presenting an unusual one-man show by Larry Stark, contemporary print-maker and photographer. It's entitled "In the merry month of May, Larry crossed the U.S.A., ate at McDonald's all the way." He did eat only at McDonald's hamburger restaurants as he drove his red, sleep-in truck across the country, peddling his own silk-screen prints that reduce highway scenes to stunning formal designs.

And as he traveled, Larry Stark took photographs and slides, made silk-screen prints, and collected such "artifacts" as balloons and paper napkins -- at the restaurants that to him symbolize American "uni-culture."

The results make interesting viewing at the Addison Gallery of American Art, on the campus of Phillips Academy. Have you seen the Addison Gallery's fine permanent collection of American painting, sculpture, and decorative arts? It's open free -- Monday through Saturday from 10 to 5, and Sundays from 2:30 to 5.

Auction A Feature Of Fair

Christ Church will hold its annual Christmas Fair on Saturday, Dec. 5, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the parish hall. Special feature of the 1970 fair will be an auction at 1 p.m. following inspection of hundreds of bargain items from 10 a.m.

"Our Christmas Fair auction will have exciting treasures worth bidding for from an extra T.V. for dad, a sewing machine for mom, new cameras, occasional furniture, games for small children to a charming rickshaw," promises Mrs. William VanBrunt, who is co-chairman of the fair with Mrs. Clark Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sheahan and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice LaBarre will run the auction which will include "silent" auctions for children who may want to bid on toys and games.

Handmade articles, knitted goods, home-baked food and pastries, Christmas greens, exotic plants, sculptured pieces and paintings are but a few of the unusual items that will be ready for Christmas shoppers at the fair.

Santa Claus will be present to talk with his young friends who may also enjoy special entertainment that will include short movie features and cartoons throughout the day. Girl Scout babysitters directed by Mrs. Robert Wilton will be available to care for the very young.

A large variety of Christmas gifts created by Mrs. David Edwards and her committee and many attractive aprons sewn by a group headed by Mrs. Harry Chase will be offered for sale.

Choice knitted articles carefully fashioned by Mrs. Lyman Pope, Mrs. Carroll Gouger and their co-workers will be ready for holiday shoppers as will handcrafted religious jewelry to be shown by Mrs. Theodore Taylor and other jewelry offered by Mrs. Robert Eastman.

Art lovers will find for sale beautiful paintings and original sculptured works which have been collected by Mrs. Rennie McQuilkin and her committee. Portraits will be drawn for a modest price by talented Mrs. William Brown.

Wreaths for the holiday season will be sold by Mrs. Charles Kirk; distinctive exotic plants for the home will be offered by Mrs. John Webster and Mrs. Peter McKee will sell different arrangements of dried flowers.

Mrs. John Richards will direct the sale of delicious homemade pastries and Malcolm Ruhl will promote popular country-store cheese.

"Country Kitchen" where shoppers will find old-fashioned, home-prepared baked beans, breads, ham and salad will be under the supervision of Mrs. Samuel Rogers and Mrs. Don Larson.

Budget-priced books for readers of all ages and interests will be found in a collection to be sold by Mrs. Thomas Stark and Mrs. Hale Sturges. Bargain-hunters will find an interesting variety of "attic treasures" gathered by Mrs. Stanley Howard and Mrs. Allen Townsend. Mrs. Christopher Corbett and members of the junior youth group of Christ Church will sell ever-popular penny candy.

Beginning at 10:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. hungry shoppers may select from a luncheon menu including hamburgers, pizza, hot dogs and corn chowder prepared by a committee headed by Clark Lewis. Mrs. David Lockwood will be hostess of the dining room.

Mrs. George Molineaux is telephone chairman for the Christmas fair; Mrs. Jerome Andrews heads a "clean-up" committee and James Poloian will be the fair treasurer.

Open House

An open house at the new public safety center on North Main Street in Andover will be held Saturday, Dec. 12, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. The general public is invited to attend.

Escorts from both the protective departments housed here, will be available to direct persons through the building and explain the equipment and its use.

Coffee will be served by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Andover Fire Department in the fire station, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Aid For Pakistan Requested

A nationwide appeal for funds to provide life-giving help for some three million Pakistan victims of what may be the worst disaster in world history has been launched by the American National Red Cross.

In announcing the urgent need for funds, American Red Cross President George M. Elsey said the Ganges River Delta section of East Pakistan exceed anything his organization or the League of Red Cross Societies in Geneva have ever before encountered in a nature-caused catastrophe.

Mr. Elsey said all American Red Cross Chapters are being asked to serve as a rallying point for the American people's generous fund contributions to this life saving relief operation. Fund gifts, marked for Pakistan Relief, should be sent or taken to local Red Cross Chapters for transmittal to Pakistan. All such contributions are tax deductible.

Checks may be made payable to the American Red Cross for Pakistan Relief. They may be presented to the Andover Chapter on Pynchard Avenue.

Panel Program Planned

Temple Emanuel of Lawrence will be the sponsor of a panel discussion program and open forum to focus on the problems of the Spanish speaking population of Lawrence.

The program will be held in the Temple auditorium on Sunday, Nov. 29 at 7:15 p.m. Temple Emanuel is located at 483 Lowell St. in Lawrence.

Experts in the affairs of the Spanish speaking community will serve on the panel, which will be moderated by Robert J. Lippe of the Lawrence Community Service Center. Mr. Lippe currently serves on the Mayor's Human Relations Advisory Committee.

Specific problems with respect to community organization will be discussed and analyzed by two members of the Puerto-Rican Affairs Association, Oscar Rodriguez and Mrs. Margarita Rivera.

Matters connecting with housing in the inner city will be presented to the audience by the Rev. James P. Keller, executive director of the Ecumenical Area Ministry, and Mrs. Suzanne M. Georges of the federally funded Title One Project in Lawrence.

Norman Comins, vice president of P. T. Brake Lining Company of Lawrence will represent the industry and business sector, on the panel. He will outline the private sector's role in providing job training for the young and disadvantaged. Mr. Comins is chairman of the Merrimack Valley Metropolitan unit of the National Alliance of Businessmen.

The evening's presentation will be under the direction of the Temple's Joint-Committee for Social Action and Adult Education, headed by Messrs. Israel Lichtman and Walter Wertheimer.

The public is invited to attend and to participate in the open discussion which will follow the panel's presentation.

Admission is free.

Editorial Comment

Thanksgiving, 1970

Possibly more than the original Thanksgiving, held 350 years ago in Plymouth, is the meaning of the occasion more important to Americans this year.

At that first Thanksgiving, it was a blessed occasion, the Pilgrims expressing their thanks for God's blessings in providing the freedom they so much desired and for which they had sacrificed. Also, thanks for a plentiful harvest, which assured them of a safe winter ahead.

Today, as we look at the world around us, as we examine the condition of our nation, it behooves us to shed our modern adornment and return to the rudimentary, yet sincere feeling of those Pilgrims of years ago.

Americans everywhere should return to the devout feeling of the Pilgrims who sat down and feasted 350 years ago.

That return should be predicated on the feeling of Thanksgiving - thankful for a land still free, food to fill our tables, shelter to shield against the elements.

Not all however, in this world, even in our nation, are so blessed.

As we observe this festive occasion, it is important to be mindful of those who, through unfortunate circumstance, can not join in celebration.

The afflicted of Pakistan, those whose relatives are involved in the Southeast Asia conflict, men infected with racial differences, those deprived through unemployment or serious illness.

This year, Thanksgiving should truly be a time to turn to the creator and express our thanks for all our blessings, and ask Him to confer upon us a new course, which, hopefully will lead to a united peaceful world.

A world and a nation, founded on brotherhood and appreciative of the good fortune our Pilgrim founders celebrated 350 years ago.

It is not too late to truly express the meaning of Thanksgiving.

An Impasse

It is regrettable that the Doherty School Addition Building Committee and the school committee have reached an impasse.

It is a matter of probably long standing, since some members of the school committee were not completely satisfied with plans in the first place, wanting a larger Instruction Material Center, otherwise known as a library.

Now, however, the building committee has its plans and is hopeful of presenting them to town meeting in March.

School committee members have been critical. They feel there should be additional work done, thus removing the possibility of having the addition ready for use in September, 1972, which the school department says it so desperately needs.

The building committee members, who so admirably produced the West school addition, have openly professed a desire to save the taxpayers money. We could find no one, but apparently school officials, who would quarrel with such a thought.

At the moment, the building committee can not see its way clear to revise plans. The school authorities, want more room and space, and traffic control.

The building committee is adamant in its thoughts to retain the current plans and produce a useable and functional school building.

Some school committee members have claimed they have been kept in the dark with regard to the building committee meetings. The meetings are posted, according to the open meeting law, so we can not see that board members should be provided with engraved invitations.

The press has been aware of the building committee activity, and its actions reported in these columns.

If the school housing problem is as acute as is projected by school authorities, one would assume that they would be satisfied with the plans presented.

We can hardly hope for anyone not to seek utopia.

But we must all be reasonable.

As we project municipal costs next year and in the years to come, we feel strongly that the building committee has the best interests of the town behind them.

How easy it is to have plush desires, with frayed pockets.

A Pay Raise

It is most significant that as of the first of January our august legislature will venture into a non-election year session.

Already predicted for action in the months to come, probably among the first matters of business, is an increase in the salary of our elected officials at the state level.

Such action in an election year, such as just passed, would be prohibitive.

But now, with the electorate having had their say, the members of the house and senate going back to those hallowed halls on Beacon Hill, comes the first order of business, an increase in their salaries.

As a starter, they propose an increase in the salary for the governor.

Gov. Sargent, comfortably re-elected, has stated he would not stand in the way of salary increases for legislators.

Currently paid $11,400, plus expenses for their obviously lucrative part time job, the members of the Great and General Court are now talking about hiking the figure to $15,000.

This, in the face of rampant unemployment in the state and the ever increasing problem of all families to make ends meet.

Taxes continue their upward spiral, and the question remains unresolved as to how much the general public can take.

Here, in Andover, we will be sending three new representatives, to the legislature this year, although one, James P. Hurrell, served previously for a two-year term.

We would hope that these fledgling servants of the area, would bear in mind the mushrooming costs facing the municipality they serve and also the diminishing returns from state and federal governments in the form of funds and project assistance.

To Mr. Hurrell, William G. Arvanitis and Atty. Edward Grimley, our three new representatives, could we suggest that Andover spoke soundly in your favor to serve.

Could you likewise return the favor by remembering your desire to serve us and not increase our costs to the benefit of your personal pocketbook?

A major increase in state costs at this time is most unwarranted.

Off The Top

Of The Desk

Motorists often are guilty of not heeding the warnings of public safety vehicles responding to emergencies.

Often we see cars remaining in the travelled way as fire apparatus, ambulances, police cruisers, rush to the scene of an emergency.

It is imperative that the motorist pull to the right of the travelled way, in order to permit safe passage of the emergency vehicles to their destination.

Interesting to see the letter carriers now a little more mobile than before.

"Jeeps," or their equivalent, are now being used by some carriers to speed the couriers on their appointed rounds.

The vehicles permit wider coverage by the carriers and more efficient service.

It is interesting to see more and more attention being paid to ecology.

Radio talk shows and local newspapers are prominently displaying the problem and the steps being taken to curb the problems.

There are now strong advocates of not only paper collection at refuse sites, such as is being done in Andover, but also separation of tin cans and other metal items for salvage.

"Don't call me. I'll call you -- from Vietnam."

Servicemen making plans like these to call their families and friends in the United States very likely will find calling home almost as easy as calling cross-country.

Local New England telephone manager Charles A. Papalia said "It is generally much easier for a serviceman to call home than for his family to try reaching him in Vietnam."

"And to avoid disappointments, servicemen are encouraged to School principals appear before the school committee asking that their salaries be established on a ration basis, allowing them a percentage increase over teachers salaries.

Town Clerk George Winslow is presented a watch from fellow employees following his retirement from office.

What Our Readers Say

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN
About the destruction of our dignified old fire station and about your editorial of Nov. 12; two questions:

It would seem that Andover would rather vandalize itself than provide a place for its own very decent young people to meet. Who are the adolescents here?

Along with slandering a very typical example of American small town architecture, your editorial belittles young people and then tries to make all of this seem like some kind of moral cause. What has happened to our crusading editor? (Oh, but then -- you are for parking lots!)

Career
Guidance
Requested

The Andover Guidance department is confident that among our parents we have lawyers, doctors, auto mechanics, nurses, beauticians, secretaries and many other representatives of American working life. In order that guidance for students be more meaningful, we need information concerning various jobs, professions and vocations, including advantages and disadvantages, rewards and sacrifices, which these careers involve.

An hour of your time talking with and advising students in a given career would give them insight and enthusiasm; otherwise extremely difficult, if not impossible to obtain.

If you have any questions or wish further information please call 475-8446.

notify their families in advance if they expect to telephone home, particularly during the coming holiday season.

"This will prevent a case like the following:

"A serviceman tried nine times to call his parents here in the states. Each time they refused the call, thinking he was a crank. Only a letter from their son convinced them that such a call from halfway around the world is possible."

Mr. Papalia said stateside callers often encounter difficulty when they try to reach someone in Vietnam.

"For one thing," he said, "war conditions have limited the expansion of Vietnamese telephone service. Thus, when a call comes into Saigon, there may be no local facilities available to route it to the serviceman being called."

"Another problem is that servicemen are very mobile. Travel restrictions and curfews in Saigon complicate the task of locating them. And, of course, combat conditions may make calling impossible."

There was a bit of a snow scare this week, as forecasters predicted the possibility of the white, flaky stuff descending on Monday or Tuesday.

Most everyone has a wary eye toward the big black clouds early in the week, no doubt cognizant of the predictions made in the Farmer's Almanac.

But, so far the area has been lucky, though admittedly our luck is sure to be running out shortly.

Film Program

The new series of film programs for Andover's senior citizens was greeted with enthusiasm by those who attended on Nov. 18. The December meeting will be held on December 17 in the Baptist Church across the street from the library. The Baptist Church has offered the use of its downstairs auditorium (side entrance on Central Street) to the library for its film program. The time is 2 p.m.; the date is Thursday, Dec. 17; the place is the Baptist Church.

Know Staff

If you haven't seen Mrs. Eldridge, Children's Room, lately, it's because she hasn't had time to sit still this past year. Ever since Miss Russell became incapacitated with a hip injury last January, Mrs. Eldridge has coordinated the activities in the Children's Room. She has kept up the busy program of this very active Children's Department with ease and charm, as any of your children can tell you. At home, in a Stoneham apartment, she lives with her husband, Ross, a business and management consultant. They both like golf and bowling. This summer the Eldridges took a vacation to Scotland and, in addition to visiting with their daughter, Betsy, who works in Edinburgh, they managed to get in some golf on those famous Scottish greens. Mrs. Eldridge developed her skills in the art world as a student in the Art School of Washington University in St. Louis and in the Museum School of Fine Arts Museum in Boston. She developed her skills as a Children's Librarian in the Weston Public Library and continued them at Memorial Hall Library when she joined the staff five years ago. Her main goals in life are to find more time to read Children's books and to start weaving on her loom which has been empty ever since she purchased it.

Improvements

Due At Vale
Station

Improvements are scheduled for the Ballardvale fire station.

Town Manager J. Maynard Austin told the selectmen this week that bids are being received for three major projects to spruce up the old building.

The hose tower and shed to the rear of the building are to be removed under one contract.

Roofing improvements are to be done under a separate contract as well as painting of the building.

The selectmen during their regular session also expressed concern about bells.

The bell from the old Central station was questioned, and they were informed that it is safely in the hands of the fire department at the public safety center, where it is being spruced up. A future use has not been decided but it will remain a part of fire department property.

Selectman Roger W. Collins asked about the bell at the 'Vale station — an item to be looked into this week. For all the members know at present, it is still there, but the matter is to be checked out.

People who suffer unemployment as a result of catastrophes declared as "major disasters" by the President may receive Disaster Unemployment Assistance under the Disaster Relief Act of 1969.

Basketball Program To Begin

This Saturday all age divisions of the Andover YMCA Boys' Basketball League will see action. Openings still exist for all age groups and interested boys must register at the YMCA, 10 Brook St., before participating. Questions should be addressed to YMCA Physical Director Walter J. Kimball, Sr. or League Director Frank Monette.

The 8 year olds will have their first workout this Saturday from 2:30-3:30 p.m. at the Y gym. The program for this youngest group will include skills instruction and informal intra-squad play. The training is intended to prepare the players for league participation next season.

The Pee Wee Division (9-10 years of age) will meet at the Andover Y gym from 1-2:30 p.m. Boys in this age group will be broken into teams at this session and should bring to the session a decision by their parents as to whether it is preferred the player compete during the season at the YMCA gym, at the Reg. Tech. gym or whether it does not matter.

The Junior Division (11-12 years of age) will meet at the Regional Tech gym 1:30-3 p.m. and will be assigned to teams at that time.

The Intermediate Division (13-14 years of age), assigned to teams last week, will engage in their first games of the league season. New boys are requested to be on hand promptly at 3 p.m. at the Tech gym for assignment to teams and games will be played between 2 and 4:30 p.m. at the Regional Tech. gym.

Communication Program Is Scheduled

In response to the concern of numerous members regarding self-awareness, communication between parent and child/teacher and child, the generation gap, and the parent and teacher relationship at the Nov. 14 brainstorming, the Shawsheen school P.T.O. will present a Communications Workshop, Wednesday, Dec. 2, under the direction of the members of the guidance team.

Thomas McKenna will open the program with a demonstration of communications techniques involving some members of the audience, followed by small group discussions. Timely questions such as: How does the school help your children develop self-awareness? How can parents learn to work better with their children? How can you help to close the generation gap? will be discussed.

Informal dress is suggested and the public is invited. Membership dues will be accepted.

Parking Ban Begins Tuesday

Winter is just about upon us and with it the problems of snow and its removal.

It also means the inception of the all night parking ban which will begin on Tuesday, Dec. 1.

The ban is in effect from Dec. 1 through April 1.

The ban is to permit snow removal operations to move smoothly, following storms during the winter months, as well as the sanding and salting of streets when necessary.

Cars left on the street after midnight beginning on Tuesday, are subject to fine and will be checked by the police department, according to Chief David L. Nicoll, beginning Tuesday morning.

Reach Accord On Addition

Sweetness and light pervaded the Town Hall meeting room where Supt. Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert Monday night declared school officials' satisfaction with the newly revised plans for the Doherty School Addition.

New plans developed by Crimp, Brown and Fisher since last week removed the impasse between the building committee and the school administrators and committee-men, and reinstated March Town Meeting as a target date for bids.

Seifert called the architect's new solution to the gym-cafeteria-toilets traffic circulation problem a vast improvement over the previous plans, and the new drawings of gym elevations seemed to satisfy all onlookers, including School committee members Mrs. Virginia Cole, William King and Frank Hill. The mood was conciliatory on all sides, if not yet celebratory.

Architect Arthur Brown told the TOWNSMAN that his firm was striving to its best ability so that the building committee could come to March Town Meeting with bona fide bids in hand. He looked for construction, then, to start in late April or May, and to consume 500 calendar days, or 15 to 16 months, including time to completely equip the building. In other words -- occupancy by September of 1972.

Building Chairman James St. Germain explained that the gymnasium elevations shown Monday night provide for a gym ceiling that starts 21 feet off the floor at the end of the basketball court-size gymnasium; it rises in a hipped-roof effect to a flat ceiling 25 or 26 feet off the floor.

A girder, however, must cut across the gym at the halfway point, for roof support and to carry the portable wall divider which will separate the gym into two teaching stations, for half-court basketball practice, other games and physical education classes.

The girder will be 18 feet off the floor, and solid to the ceiling. St. Germain said the ceiling would allow for high arched basketball shots in either half-court or full-court play, and Architect Brown said the filled-in space above the girder would have acoustical benefits.

The administration declared itself well-satisfied with the improvements in the plan, and Dr. Seifert reiterated that his satisfaction and confidence in the building committee's plans for the Doherty Addition were, with this week's improvements, complete.

Celebrity Series Continues

"The World of Gilbert and Sullivan" with stars of D'Oyly Carte fame, the second event in the Merrimack College Celebrity Series, will be presented on Friday evening, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m. in the College Chapel at Merrimack College.

"The World of Gilbert and Sullivan" is the American touring company of England's celebrated "Gilbert and Sullivan for All, Ltd." The company was formed to give American audiences an opportunity to hear Gilbert and Sullivan as it should be heard -- brought to life with the flair and style unique to the English Savoyards. The company includes Donald Adams, principal bass with the D'Oyly Carte Company for 16 years; Thomas Round, formerly a leading tenor with the Sadlers Wells Opera Company and the D'Oyly Carte Opera Company; Angela Jenkins, a graduate of the Royal Academy of Music and frequent performer for B.B.C. radio and television; John Cartier, a D'Oyly Carte principal for several seasons; Helen Landis, who sings most of the leading contralto roles in the G and S repertoire; and Michael Moores, conductor at Sadlers Wells and with several English orchestras, and music producer for B.B.C.

The program for Dec. 4 will include scenes, songs, and patter from "The Gondoliers," "Toscanini," "Princess Ida," "Cox and Box," "Utopia Ltd.," "The Mikado," "Pirates of Penzance," "The Yeoman of the Guard," "Ruddigore," "H.M.S. Pinafore," "Patience," and "The Sorcerer." Tickets for the performance are on sale in the McQuade Library at Merrimack, or they may be obtained by writing Prof. John Murphy, Box 893, Merrimack College, North Andover.

Association To Meet

The Sixteenth Annual Meeting of the Northeastern Section of the Mathematical Association of America will be held at Merrimack College on Saturday, Nov. 28. Raymond Ozimkoski, chairman of the Mathematics Department at Merrimack is in charge of the campus arrangements. The program has been arranged by Dr. Michael C. Gemignani of Smith College, and Mr. George Best of Phillips Academy, Andover has been responsible for mailing and distributing programs.

Mrs. Michael A. Lane, R.N.

Becomes Bride In Bradford

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn C. Southwell, 19 Burnham Road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Linda A., R.N., to Michael A. Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lane, 8 Hyatt Ave., Bradford, at a ceremony at 4 p.m., Nov. 14 in Sacred Hearts Church, Bradford. Rev. William G. Williams officiated. Cheryl Southwell was her sister's maid of honor and Dennis Lane served as best man.

Mrs. Lane is a nurse in the Coronary Care Unit of the Lawrence General Hospital. Mr. Lane, a graduate of Central Catholic High School, served in the U. S. Marine Corps for three years and saw service in Vietnam. He is an electrical engineering student at North-eastern University in Boston.

A reception was held at the Merrimack Valley Motor Inn, North Andover, after which the couple left on a trip through the White Mountains.

Elliot Elected President

Clifton P. Elliott of Topsfield was elected president of the Essex Agricultural Society, sponsor of the Topsfield Fair, at the society's annual November meeting.

The report of the society's accountant showed a net income of $25,273.71 for the 1970 fair. This was one of the largest profits in the history of America's oldest county fair, founded in 1818.

Nearly every category of the Fair's operations, including attendance, reached a new high at last September's 146th renewal of the Fair. Total attendance including children who are admitted free, was placed at 338,000 for the eight day exposition. There was a slight decrease in the greyhound parimutuel handle from the 1969 record due to one rainy night this year.

Joining President Elliott on the Board of Directors for 1971 are: John T. Brown, Wenham, First Vice President; Herman R. Magnuson, Manchester, Second Vice President; Nicholas D'Agostino, Topsfield, Secretary; Loren E. Copp, Beverly, Treasurer.

To Address Bowdoin Club

Dr. Roger Howell, Jr., president of Bowdoin College, will discuss the College's recently announced decision to become a coeducational institution at the monthly luncheon of the Bowdoin Club of Boston, Dec. 2.

The meeting will be held at noon at Nick's Restaurant, 100 Warrenton St., Boston.

Dr. Howell will present an informal report on the latest developments at the campus of the Brunswick, Maine, liberal arts college, which announced last month that it will admit 60 coeds as degree candidates next fall.

At 34 one of the youngest college presidents in the nation, Dr. Howell was recently selected by the New England State Jaycee Institute as one of the region's four "Outstanding Young Men of 1970."

A native of Baltimore, Md., Dr. Howell is a widely known historian and author whose books have been published on both sides of the Atlantic. He became the tenth President of Maine's oldest institution of higher learning last year at the age of 32.

Dr. Howell is a Phi Beta Kappa and summa cum laude member of Bowdoin's Class of 1958. He was awarded a Rhodes Scholarship, receiving his B.A., M.A., and D. Phil. degrees at St. John's College, Oxford University. He was recently awarded honorary Doctor of Laws degrees by Colby College and Nassau College.

Smith Club Holds Meeting

The annual fall meeting of the Andover - Merrimack Valley Smith Club was held Thursday afternoon, Nov. 19, at Cooley House, Phillips Academy.

The new officers who assumed office at this meeting are: Mrs. Robert Segal of North Andover, president; Mrs. Raymond G. Harrison of Boxford, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Avrett of North Andover, secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Hale Veasey of Haverhill, treasurer.

The report of the alumnae council meeting at Smith College this fall, given by Mrs. Raymond G. Harrison of Boxford, the club's representative to alumnae council, highlighted the meeting. Final plans were announced for the annual sale of pecans, a fund raising project for scholarships for local students at Smith College, by Mrs. Richard E. Chapell of Andover, chairman of special projects.

The pecans will be sold by members of the Smith Club and at the Hay Scales Exchange. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Richard E. Chapell.

Education Forum Is Commended

Committeeman Dr. Daniel Frishman led the committee in commending the League of Women Voters and other planners of the recent educational forum at the high school.

Frishman said the forum had served the very useful purpose of raising and airing questions, and indicating directions of community interest and inquiry.

At the forum, Frishman sensed an interest and need to know "what the masterplan is" - the directions of education - despite administration attempts to inform citizens. (The educational masterplan, and priority list, submitted by the school superintendent, was published in the TOWNSMAN).

As for trends of thought, Frishman also saw an interest in more "experiential" approach to education, to supplement the cognitive approach.

Frishman said he was particularly pleased that when discussion groups talked about "discipline in the schools", they stressed the school's efforts toward development of self-discipline in the child.

The school committee at the same meeting approved accepting bids of three bus drivers, pending completion of the performance bond requirements. Two of the new contracts will be replacements, and one will be an addition, to alleviate standee problem on a route which mostly affects West Elementary school.

Low-bidding drivers who won the contracts are Roger Davidoff, High Plain Road, $7,488; James Wilson, of Methuen, $7,595, and William C. Smeltzer, Jr., 19 Woburn St., $7,600.

His retirement brings to a close the last of the original board of selectmen to serve under the town manager charter which went into effect in 1958.

In announcing his decision, Stewart stated, "I have served for 12 years and enjoyed every minute of it."

"I hope I have contributed something toward the welfare of Andover. This town and its people have been good to me, and I hope that I have served them well."

"I have been advised medically that if I am to enjoy my years of retirement, I should curtail my activities."

"If I cannot give 100 percent to the board and the town, then someone else should take my place."

"Changes are necessary. New thoughts and ideas should be forthcoming and young people given the opportunity to serve their community."

"As a member of the board it can be said that not everyone agreed with me, but everyone knew where I stood on any and all issues."

"To whoever succeeds me, I wish the best of success."

Stewart, who operated his own accounting firm, has been active in church and youth organizations for many years.

He was an officer of West Parish church for many years as well as holding offices in the former Andover Council of Churches.

He was an organizer and active leader in the Andover Church Basketball league.

In his first bid for public office in 1958, Stewart was successful in being elected to a three year term on the new board of selectmen by six votes. A recount which followed did not change the final tally.

Since that time he has been successfully re-elected by substantial margins.

He and his late wife, the former Gertrude A. Smith who was a school nurse, here, have two children, Bruce R. and Marjorie A.

The late comedian W. C. Fields has the following advice regarding perseverance: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. Then quit. No use being a damn fool about it."

Ubiquitous. That's us.

That's a fancy word meaning we're all over the place. Twelve branch offices. All featuring one-stop banking at the big blue M.

Televisions Ready To Choose For The Holidays.

Choose your new TV from "Television Row" shown above, at Renfrew TV & Appliance Center, 265 Main Street, North Reading, in the Atlantic Plaza. Tony Bananno, owner of Renfrew TV, is now showing a complete line of the very latest in RCA, G. E. and Emerson television, all styles and models for every decor, in both black and white and color. And what's more, Tony backs up every sale with excellent service, which is as near as your telephone, plus expert antenna installation, inside or out.

The newest thing in TV this season is the Argosy by RCA; it is the best color portable ever built. RCA proudly presents this Trans Vista 100 portable, all solid-state color - 18" diagonal color engineered for the discriminating buyer who refuses to compromise on quality. Whites are whiter, colors are brighter, with details sharply etched. Because the new wide-angle picture tube requires less depth than standard tubes, the Argosy is 20% slimmer front-to-back than conventional 18" color television sets. It has 11 plug-in Accu-Circuits which can be removed and another snapped in, in seconds.

Renfrew also has beautiful cabinet models by Emerson, RCA and G. E. in handsome woods, in both color and black and white. They have RCA stereos and portable radios; Emerson stereos, AM FM and stereo radios and portable record players; a complete line of tape equipment, including cassette recorders and players; cartridge recorders and players for home and automobile.

In addition, Renfrew has Westinghouse and G. E. washers, dryers, refrigerators, dishwashers and air conditioners in the latest models and decorator colors. These make excellent family Christmas gifts. Local bank financing is available at Renfrew TV & Appliance Center in the Atlantic Plaza. Drive down any time, open daily 9 to 9, Saturdays 9 to 6.

HERBERT C. WALSH vs
ROBERT J. JOHNSON, et al.
Action of Contract; ad damnum $33,000.

It appearing to said Court by the suggestion of the plaintiff, and on inspection of the officer's return on the plaintiff's writ, that the defendant was not a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of the service of said writ, and had no last and usual place of abode, tenant, agent, or attorney in this said Commonwealth known to the plaintiff or to said officer, and that no personal service of said writ has been made upon the defendant. Therefore it is ordered by said Court that the plaintiff give notice to the defendant of the pendency of this action, and to appear before this Court at Salem in the County of Essex on the first Monday of January next, and answer the same, by causing an attested copy of this order to be published once a week for three successive weeks in the Andover Townsman, a newspaper printed and published at Andover in said County, the last publication to be fourteen days at least before said first Monday of January, 1971, and by mailing, postage prepaid, a copy of said notice to the defendant at his last and usual place of abode. And that this action be continued until notice shall be given to the defendant agreeably to this order.

Attest:
PHILIP A. HENNESSEY, Clerk
Entered November 6, 1970.

NEARLY DONE. The controversial former Central fire station, is nearly reduced to rubble this week as the wrecking firm rapidly completes demolition of the building. Since vacated by the fire department this summer, the building was used as youth drop-in center. The selectmen moved to have the building demolished, as town meeting had dictated in March, thus the young people are seeking an alternate site.

Read And Spell By Machine

Teaching machines are helping students learn their phonics, reading and spelling in some of Andover's elementary schools.

Teachers in nine classrooms of first and second graders at Doherty are sharing use of a leased "Eorg Warner System 80" to help teaching reading and spelling to students who need supplemental work beyond the grouped reading program. The approach is "audio and visual."

When Michael Tretina, one of Miss Bascom's second graders, sat down to demonstrate the machine for the TOWNSMAN, a picture and some words appeared on a TV-like screen. There is a row of squarish press-buttons just below the screen of the B-W System 80.

As the picture appeared, an invisible taperecorded teacher asked Michael questions testing his comprehension of the pictures, words or phrases on the screen; "Pick the word which tells what the boy and the dog are doing." Mike pushed the button under the word "running."

Another image appeared, with another question: "Which sentence tells what's happening in the picture?" Mike considered the picture, read the two sentences, and made his choice by pushing the button under one of them. There was a big grin on his face, and a second grade girl confided, "I get to use the machine sometimes too." It is evident that children who need some individual supplemental help in reading do not regard this as a chore. Mike had to be instructed to make a mistake to demonstrate the machine's talent for instant correction -- a big plus in educator's eyes. When Mike reluctantly pressed the button under a wrong answer, the picture remained on the screen and the taperecorded voice repeated the questions until Mike pressed the button under the correct answer, with a big grin on his face.

Mike was born in Czechoslovakia; his family made their way to Mannheim, Germany, for a year or two, then came to settle in Andover last year. Besides individual extra help in reading our language from the Eorg Warner teaching machine, Michael receives instruction in his native tongue at home, from his mother.

Reading Supervisor Theresa Murphy told the TOWNSMAN that the Eorg Warner System 80 is on lease for five months to see how much use of the machine and its programmed materials help children for whom the regular grouped reading program is not enough. Its purpose is to extend the classroom teacher's ability to help children learn. The teachers seem enthusiastic, and the machine's time is all signed up at Doherty, which was given the opportunity to test the machine because it has nine classrooms of first and second graders.

In January, after retesting of the children who have used it, the reading department will decide whether or not to recommend purchase of the sophisticated teaching machine. The price? $1440, for the machine and the programs for reading and spelling, minus the rental fee for the first five months. A teaching machine is only as good as its programs, Mrs. Murphy pointed out, and the school wants to be sure. The Eorg Warner System 80 has math programs, as well as the reading and spelling programs which Doherty is using.

Another type of teaching machine in use at South and Bancroft is the Talking Page.
